

Window Of My Mind (©2010 Music & Lyrics by Thomas Krug)

Woke up this morning remembering a dream
Long time forgotten from years far away
So I took my feet and I walked through the room
To the window of my mind
But I saw what I saw every day

People all running always future in mind
Having no present leaving past all behind
And I asked myself they keep running on
What the hell they're looking for
I don't know, I don't know what's this all about

Through the window of my mind
Could I see a different life
Would I listen to the melody of love
Feeling there's no need
For fighting on all the time

Once again to my mind came this dream, oh so kind
Of a different land far away in the end
And I wished to go there to get rid of myself
Leaving all this rubbish behind
For I know, for I know I'm still of their kind

Through the window of my mind
Could I see a different life
Would I listen to the melody of love
Feeling there's no need
For fighting on all the time

All the places, all the people pass by
It's time by now to open the window of my mind

I don't know, I don't know, I don't know what's going on
There must be something wrong I'll never understand
I don't know, I don't know, I don't know what's going on
There must be something wrong I'll never understand
